

VitalityLife Trust form

The VitalityLife Absolute Trust

At VitalityLife we try to avoid complex language and unnecessary jargon wherever possible. However, because this is a legal document and trust laws are complex the words in this form are more technical than other VitalityLife documents. We've included margin notes to help with completion but if you have any questions let us know and we'll answer them as simply as possible.

Important notes

- This Absolute Trust is for use with your plan. It allows you to keep for yourself the benefits under the plan that are payable during your lifetime (such as Serious Illness Cover, LifestyleCare Cover or Income Protection Cover) and to give away other benefits to named beneficiaries, such as Life Cover, that are paid on death.
- As the name absolute trust implies, it is not possible to remove or change the entitlement of beneficiaries. You should therefore not use this trust if you wish to retain the flexibility to change beneficiaries.
- You must indicate in the trust whether you want to keep the sum paid on diagnosis of a terminal illness for yourself or give it away. Once made, this choice cannot be changed. As this choice may have important tax consequences, you should discuss your requirements with your adviser. Where the plan is a joint life first death plan it is assumed that both of you would wish to be paid the benefit on diagnosis of a terminal illness and so, in this circumstance, this benefit cannot be gifted to others.
- Where the plan is a joint life second death plan, death benefits (including Terminal Illness benefits) are only paid on the second death or the second event. This means that if one life assured has already died or suffered a terminal illness, benefits will be paid when the second life assured dies or suffers a terminal illness. In cases where the second event is terminal illness it is probably the case that both of you would not want the survivor to receive terminal illness benefits on the second life becoming terminally ill. This benefit can therefore be gifted by, at outset, completing the appropriate box in the trust. Benefits based on a life assured's state of health, (such as, Serious Illness Cover) will be paid on the first event to happen in the normal way.
- To ensure there are no adverse inheritance tax ("IHT") implications, if the plan provides serious illness cover you need to make sure that, it is set up as a separate cover from the outset. We strongly recommend that discuss your requirements with your adviser.
- Where the plan provides LifestyleCare Cover, you need to ensure that the plan includes, from outset, LifestyleCare Cover Protector. The level required will depend on the level of LifestyleCare Cover, if it is equal to the Life Cover then Level 1 will be required, if unequal then Level 1 and 2 are required. Failure to do so does not affect the validity of the trust but may have adverse IHT consequences. You should discuss your requirements with your adviser.
- This trust may be used either when you are applying for a new plan or with an existing plan.
- This trust may be used whether the plan is owned/applied for by one person or two people jointly (with death benefits payable on either the first death or second death).
- This trust can be used with plans that are on a whole of life basis or those that expire after a fixed term.
- With a joint life plan that pays death benefits on the first death, you can choose for the survivor to benefit after the first death provided they survive the death by 30 days. If they do not, the benefit will be held by the trustees for the other beneficiaries. This option is not available on joint life second death plans because benefits are not payable until the second event.

Disclaimer

VitalityLife cannot accept responsibility that this Trust is suitable for your individual requirements. If you or your adviser are unsure about its suitability, we strongly advise that you seek specialist legal or tax advice.

The notes in this Trust form are based on VitalityLife's understanding of the law and HM Revenue & Customs practice. We have made every effort to ensure they are accurate but accept no responsibility for our interpretation of the law, or future changes in the law.

- For a full explanation of the features and the legal and tax implications of this trust please refer to the VitalityLife Client guide to trusts. The VitalityLife Absolute Trust - Adviser Guide, gives more in-depth coverage of the technical issues.
- This trust is provided in draft form. We recommend that you seek legal or tax advice before using the trust as, once created, it cannot be revoked or altered.
- If, after seeking legal advice, the draft trust is to be used unaltered, you should follow the completion instructions in the margin of the document.
- We strongly recommend that you appoint additional trustees to act with you from the outset. If there are no surviving trustees when the benefits are payable we will not be able to pay out the benefits quickly as we will need to wait until probate is obtained.

Key Trust Provisions

1. The Retained Fund is comprised of the benefits under the Plan that you want to keep for yourself. They will be held on a bare trust for you.
2. The Gifted Fund is comprised of the benefits of the Plan that you give away and that will be held by the Trustees on bare trust for the Beneficiaries you name in the Trust. Neither the Beneficiaries nor their shares can be changed.
