Deed of appointment of first additional Trustee(s)

At VitalityLife we try to avoid complex language and unnecessary jargon wherever possible. However, because this is a legal document and trust laws are complex the words in this form are more technical than other VitalityLife documents. We've included margin notes to help with completion but if you have any questions let us know and we'll answer them as simply as possible.

Important notes

- This Deed may be used by the Settlor, who has made their plan subject to the VitalityLife Discretionary Trust, VitalityLife Absolute Trust or VitalityLife Business Trust to appoint additional trustee(s).
- This wording is suitable to effect the first appointment of additional Trustees. If additional Trustees have already been appointed and you wish to appoint further Trustees, a different deed, which is supplied by VitalityLife, is needed.
- This Deed is provided in draft form and can be altered for your requirements. If after seeking legal advice, this wording is to be used unaltered the parties to the Deed should follow the completion instructions in the margin of the document.
- The original of this Deed must always be sent to VitalityLife so that the legal interest of the new Trustee can be recorded. The Deed will be returned to the first named Trustee.
- At the time of a claim, the Deed may be needed to prove the Trustees' title to the Plan.

Disclaimer

VitalityLife accepts no responsibility that this Deed is suitable for your individual requirements. If you are unsure about its suitability we strongly advise you to seek legal or tax advice.
